

Subaru Corporation Announces Organizational Changes (Effective June 1, 2022)

Tokyo, June 1, 2022 – Subaru Corporation has announced the following organizational changes effective today.

Engineering Div.

Effective June 1, 2022	Former
E&C* System Development Dept. (Newly established)  *E&C: Electronic & Connected	Electronic Platform Design Dept.
	Connected Car Development Dept.
	Electronic Control System Development Dept.
Battery System Development Dept. (Newly established)	Part of the Powertrain Design Dept.
	Part of the Vehicle Environment Development Dept.

- The functions related to battery system development of the Powertrain Design Dept. and the Vehicle Environment Development Dept. have been integrated to form the Battery System Development Dept., which will mainly engage in developing technologies and processes to manage EV battery performance and reliability.
- The Powertrain Design Dept. and the Vehicle Environment Development Dept. will continue to engage in the rest of their existing functions.

###