STI Performance Concept

<Major exhibits>

◆ STI Performance Concept (Show model)

STI Performance Concept signifies STI's core business areas; aftermarket parts, complete cars and motorsports. Featuring STI technologies and components including STI suspension and brake enhancements as well as other exterior and interior upgrades, the concept cars showcases STI's key business areas of aftermarket performance parts and complete cars. To signify STI's commitment to motor sports, it employs the STI-tuned EJ20 horizontally-opposed 2.0-liter four-cylinder turbo racing engine currently used for the Super GT race in Japan.

◆ Levorg STI Concept (Show model)

The "WR Blue Pearl" colored Levorg STI Concept employs an exclusive front fascia with quality feel and STI-designed 18-inch aluminum wheels, offering stylish design. Its red-wine and black two-tone color interior features high-quality feel with exclusive accessories. By employing exclusive STI-tuned dampers, superb ride quality, stability and exhilarating handling performance have been delivered.

◆ Subaru XV Hybrid STI Concept (Show model)

The Subaru XV Hybrid STI Concept harmonized Subaru XV's "casual & sporty" character with STI brand's sportiness.

With orange-colored accents on "Quartz White Silica" exterior color, its active and sporty image has been further enhanced. Its interior has also been accentuated by orange and beige color. In addition, by employing STI sports parts, superb ride quality and stability have been achieved, enhancing Subaru hybrid model's fun to drive character.
